

Name : Prof. Manoj Pant

Function : Director
Professor of Economics

Email : diroffice@iift.ac.in

A graduate of St. Stephen's College, Delhi University, Prof. Manoj Pant completed his MA from the Delhi School of Economics in 1975 and his Ph.D from the Southern Methodist University, Dallas, Texas, USA in 1982. FROM 1985, he was a faculty member of the Centre for International Trade and Development, School of International Studies, Jawaharlal Nehru University, India and Professor of Economics and Dean, School of International Studies, JNU till Sept. 2017. From Sept. 2017 he is Director and Vice chancellor, Indian institute of Foreign Trade. Prior to that he was teaching Economics in Delhi University since about 1975. He has also been a guest lecturer in business schools of Indian Institute of Management, Lucknow and the Indian institute of Foreign Trade, IIFT, Delhi, University of Lucerne, Switzerland and a visiting Fullbright scholar at the Deptt. of Economics, Columbia University, Massachussets, USA. He has about 40 publications in international referred journals and four books. Apart from his academic pursuits, Prof. Pant has spoken extensively at various public fora of organizations like UNCTAD, OXFAM and other non-governmental organizations on issues relating to trade negotiations, investment and competition policy. He was expert member of the Ministry of Commerce, Government of India group on Environmental issues in the WTO, of the consultative group on trade issues of the Planning Commission, a member of the technical committee of the Ministry of Human Resource Development for WTO and Trade in Educational Services and Chairman of the Project Review Committee, Department of Scientific and Industrial Research, Govt. of India. He has been a columnist for India's leading financial daily, The Economic Times and also writes in the Financial Express and Mint business papers. Prof. Pant has been Economic Advisor and consultant to the Govt. of Nagaland since about 2002. In 2017 he was conferred the Kautilya award for most Economics for the year 2017 by the Uttar Pradesh Economics Association.

His fields of interest are International Trade Theory, Foreign Investment, Competition Policy and the WTO.

